

'the inevitable record' - notes

okay, I'm only half kidding here. EVERYBODY makes a christmas record - here's mine.

You'll find only traditional hymns here: silent night, the first noel, joy to the world, and all the others you sing in church.

There'll only be these 200 - no commercial release - which is why it's a 'collector's edition'.

If you like my voice, you'll love this record, you can put it on when you've heard george michael on the car radio one too many times...

merry christmas!
